Using State Transportation Funding in Stanislaus County

A Presentation to the California Transportation Commission

Tuesday, October 8, 2013

Presentation by Carlos Yamzon

Executive Director, Stanislaus Council of Governments

Stanislaus County
Overview

- Area – Approximately 1,515 square miles
- 2010 Population – 514,453 people
- Contains 2,700 miles of roadways
- Consists of 9 cities:
  - Ceres
  - Hughson
  - Modesto
  - Newman
  - Oakdale
  - Patterson
  - Riverbank
  - Turlock
  - Waterford
- Sixth largest agricultural producing county in California
- Part of the San Joaquin Valley Air District

Stanislaus County
Regional Challenges

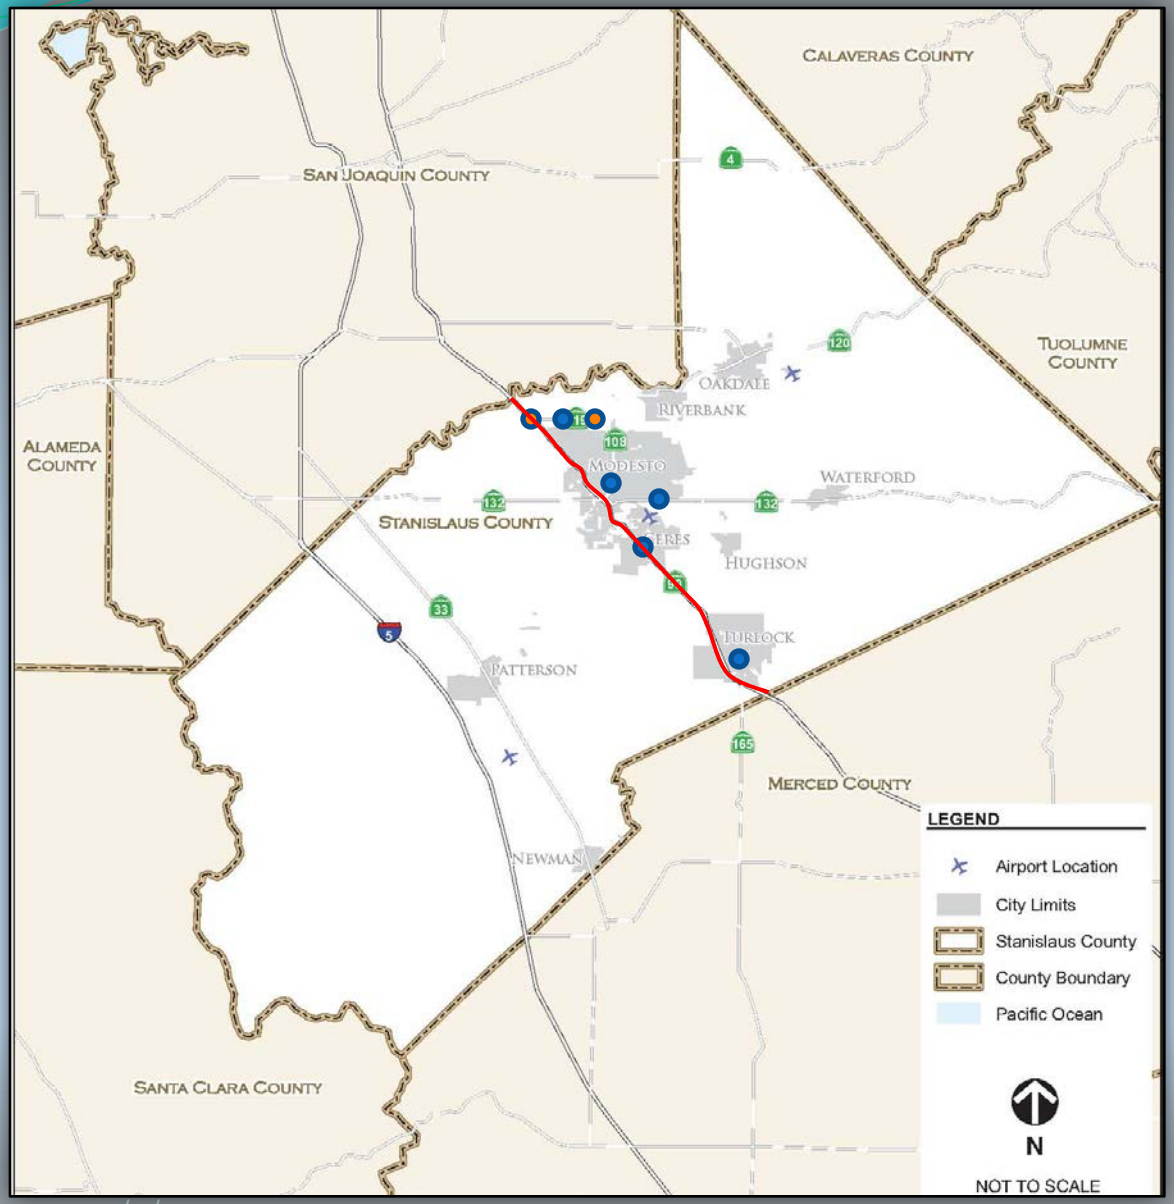
- Jobs/Housing imbalance
- Air quality
- Water availability
- Lack of funding for transportation infrastructure projects

Stanislaus County
Strengths and Opportunities

- Regional collaboration and stakeholder involvement
- Successful obligation of transportation funding
- Continuing State partnerships

Stanislaus County

State Funded Projects Built or Under Construction



- SR 132 East widening
- Whitmore Ave./SR 99 interchange reconstruction
- Kiernan Ave. (SR 219) Phase I widening
- Modesto Bus Maintenance Facility
- Turlock Bus Transit Center
- Kiernan Ave. (SR 219)/SR 99 interchange reconstruction
- Kiernan Ave. (SR 219) Phase II widening
- SR 99 resurfacing project

Stanislaus County

State and Local Partnership Projects

State Route 132 East Widening

Total Project Cost: $11.6 million

STIP Funds: $10 million

Open to Public: 2009

Partners: StanCOG, Caltrans, Modesto

Stanislaus County

State and Local Partnership Projects

Whitmore Avenue at State Route 99 Interchange Reconstruction

Total Project Cost: $42.3 million

STIP and STIP TE Funds: $42.3 million

Open to Public: 2010

Partners: StanCOG, Caltrans, Ceres

Stanislaus County

State and Local Partnership Projects

Kiernan Avenue (State Route 219) Widening

Total Project Cost: $50 million

STIP Funds: $25 Million

Open to Public: 2014

Partners: StanCOG, Caltrans, Modesto, Stanislaus County

Stanislaus County
State and Local Partnership Projects

City of Modesto Bus Maintenance Facility

Total Project Costs: $17.5 million

Proposition 1B Funds: $2.5 million

Project Completion: 2012

Partners: StanCOG, Modesto, Caltrans

Stanislaus County

State and Local Partnership Projects

City of Turlock Transit Center

Total Project Costs: $5.2 million

Proposition 1B Funds: $1.5 million

Project Completion: 2012

Partners: StanCOG, Turlock, Caltrans

Stanislaus County
State and Local Partnership Projects

Kiernan Avenue (State Route 219) at State Route 99 Interchange Reconstruction

Total Project Cost: $50.8 million

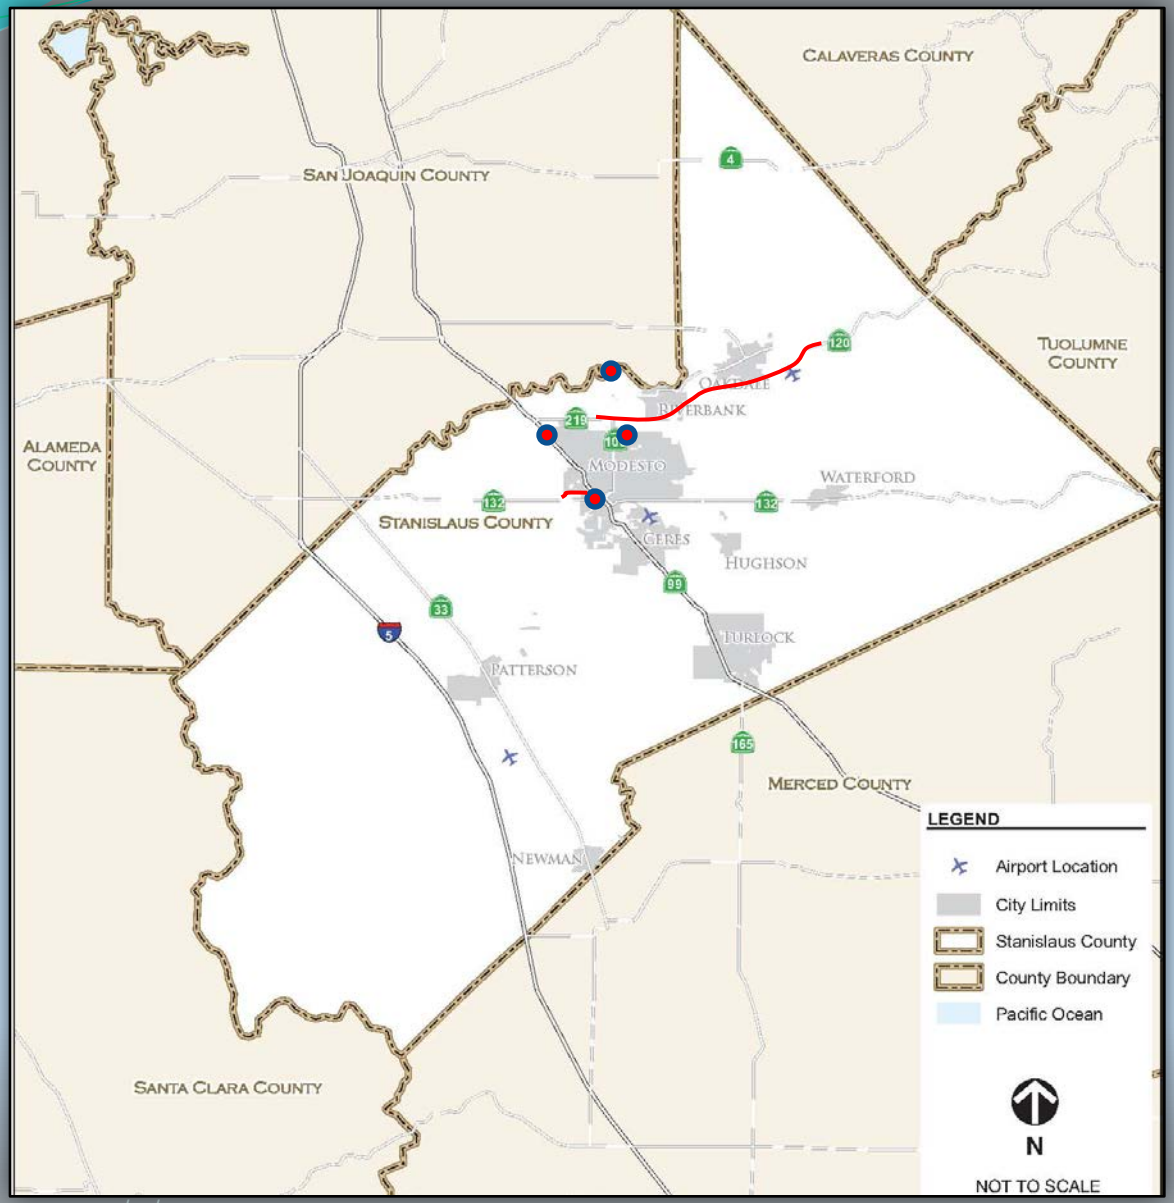
State Route 99 Bond Savings: $37 million

Open to Public: 2015

Partners: StanCOG, Caltrans, Stanislaus County

Stanislaus County

State Funded Projects Planned for Construction



- SR 132 West Expressway Phase I
- Pelandale Ave./SR 99 interchange reconstruction
- Claribel Rd. widening
- North County Corridor
- McHenry Ave. widening and bridge replacement

Stanislaus County

State and Local Partnership Projects

State Route 132 West Freeway/Expressway

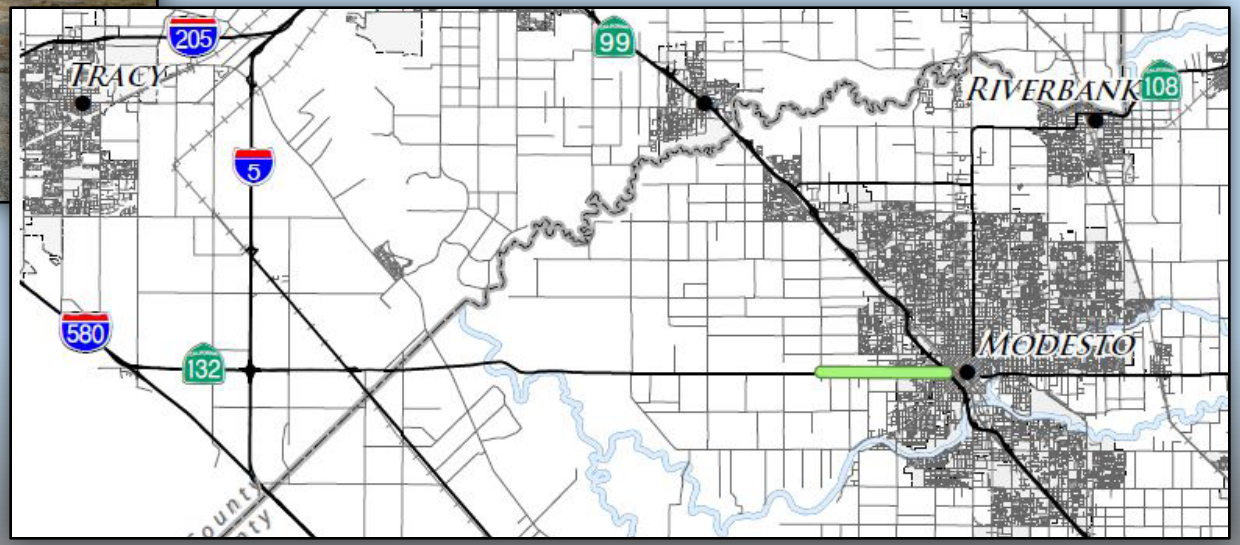
Phase I

Total Project Cost: $45.3 million

STIP Funds: $18.9 million

Open to Public: 2018

Partners: StanCOG, Caltrans, Modesto



Stanislaus County

State and Local Partnership Projects

North County Corridor

Total Project Cost: $300 million

Project Includes ITIP and STIP Funds

Open to Public: 2022

Partners: StanCOG, Caltrans, Modesto, Stanislaus County, Riverbank, and Oakdale

Stanislaus County
State and Local Partnership Projects

Pelandale Avenue at State Route 99 Interchange Reconstruction

Total Project Cost: $56.3 million

Requested State Route 99 Bond Savings: $43.8 million

Open to Public: 2016

Partners: StanCOG, Caltrans, Modesto, Stanislaus County

Carlos Yamzon, Executive Director

Stanislaus Council of Governments

cyamzon@stancog.org